Arrest of attempted theft of £100,000 car!

Mopeds

Ruislip Manor Safer Neighbourhoods Team in Tesco Express arrested two males for attempted theft of motor vehicle. The group attempted to steal a Porsche from a local resident who called police and thanks to the quick response of the Ruislip Manor SNT were arrested. The males were from Ladbrooke Grove. And all well known to Police.

Whilst on patrol Ruislip Manor SNT Officers came located a stolen Ford Focus ST-3 by means of a Burglary. The vehicle was preserved for forensics and taken to the car pound at Perivale.

A stop on red van in West End Road became a vehicle seizure on a non-insured driver. The occupants were also well known burglars and rug users with used syringes in the vehicle. The vehicle has now been crushed and the occupants with no means of travel.

Ruislip Manor Safer Neighbourhoods Team successfully achieved a two year continued key crime reduction of over 30% on the ward and the highest on Hillingdon Borough!

The Teams Police Officers have been policing the ward in plain clothes (no uniform) and in an unmarked police car. This proactive style has turned up trumps with numerous stops and searches on known drug users and thieves. Many residents have seen them out and about conducting stops.

The team have been gathering evidence against known youths within the ward and the local vicinity who have been conducting ASB around the ward. The information being gathered will contribute to an Anti social Behaviour Contract (ABC) and can lead to an ASBO.
